Thanksgiving

What does Thanksgiving mean to you? I hear one boy say, "It means a big dinner." I think we all agree with him. Who does not welcome and enjoy a good dinner! I hear Mary say, "Thanksgiving means a day off from school." I guess you are right too. School is not such a charming place that girls and boys are unwilling to have an occasional holiday. Now I am going to ask some of the older people what the day means to them. There is a young woman. She is a stenographer. She says, "Thanksgiving means a day away from the office. I am at the office every day except Sunday, and I do appreciate, now and then, a day that is really my own." Yonder is a traveling salesman. What does Thanksgiving mean to you? He says, "It means a day at home. Last year I spent one hundred and sixty-nine nights away from home. I have three children. I should like to see them every day. There are times when many days pass and I do not see them. Thanksgiving week I plan to be at home." There are others I could ask. Each has his answer. But Thanksgiving has a special meaning for us. It is the Harvest time. I have here an apple. Isn't this a beautiful apple? What color! Who mixed the paints, who handled the brush to give such color to this apple? God. He, in his infinite love and wisdom, has provided, through the unfailing laws of nature, for the growth, sweetness, coloring and beautifying of all the products of the fields. This apple is but one of many kinds of fruits. Praise, then, is the great meaning of Thanksgiving. God, our heavenly Father, sends us every good gift. From his bountiful hand come our daily and nightly mercies. We should praise him every day. But the day for the united chorus of praise is Thanksgiving.

Happy

Thanksgiving

A Psalm of Praise

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the lands!
Serve the Lord with gladness!
Come into His presence with singing!
Know that the Lord is God!
It is He that made us, and we are His;
We are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.
Enter His gates with thanksgiving and
His courts with praise!
Give thanks to Him, bless His name!
For the Lord is good; His steadfast love
Endures for ever, and His faithfulness to all generations. Psalm 100

From Our Family To Yours

The holidays are quickly approaching and we realize how busy the next few weeks can be especially for your parents! Sometimes we get so wrapped up in all the activities, family events, and making our Christmas list that we lose sight of what Christmas is really all about. During this Christmas season please don't forget that we are celebrating our Savior's birth. I'm sure you have all heard and will hear it again but "Jesus is the Reason for the Season"!! It might be that this Christmas you can share Christ with someone who doesn't know Him and give that person the best Christmas gift ever! We hope that you all have a wonderful holiday season spent with family and friends and we wish you and your families A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS!!

Love,
Mr. Steve & Mrs. Kathy
